

Celebrating the 880th Anniversary of the Consecration of Glasgow Cathedral and
Glasgow's Early History

St Mungo's Museum: 10.00am, Thursday 7 July 2016

PROGRAMME

- 10.00-10.30 Registration and coffee
- 10.35 Welcome
Revd. Dr Laurence A B Whitley, Minister of Glasgow Cathedral
- Session 1
- The Early Cathedral
- 10.40-11.10 Dr Adrian Cox, Historic Environment Scotland
- 11.10-11.30 The Demolition of the Western Towers
Dr James Macaulay, Medieval Glasgow Trust
- 11.30-11.40 Questions
- Session two
- 11.40-12.00 The Archaeology of the route between Glasgow Cathedral and St
Andrew's Cathedral
Dr John Hume
- Partick Castle
- 12:00–12.20 Hugh McBrien, West of Scotland Archaeology Service
- 12.20-12.30 Questions
- Additional Activity – Niall Murphy
- 1.15-2.30 A walk through time along the High Street - the spine of the medieval city - from Glasgow Cathedral to Glasgow Cross.
- Niall has two decades experience as an architect and is heavily involved in heritage and community issues in Glasgow. In 2014 Niall won the Glasgow Doors Open Day excellence award for his walking tours.*

