

Paisley Development Trust Presents:

Renfrewshire Witch Hunt 1697

Calling All Volunteers:

We meet every week at 7pm on Thursday in the Paisley Development Trust office, c/o YMCA, corner of New Street and High Street, Paisley.

Paisley Development Trust Presents:

Renfrewshire Witch Hunt 1697

"Injustice Done"
Scottish Witchcraft, Folk Belief and the
Renfrewshire Witch Hunt of 1697

Saturday 9th June 2012, 9am -12.30pm
The Panel Room, Place of Paisley, Abbey Close, Paisley

Cost £5.00

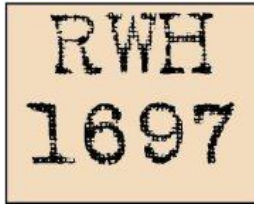

A Conference to study the cause and effects of the Witchcraft accusations of 16th & 17th Century Scotland, in relation to the Bargarran Accusations of 1696/97 in Renfrewshire.

Tea/ coffee & Biscuits included in cost.

The Paisley Development Trust www.thepdt.org.uk

"Injustice Done"

Scottish Witchcraft, Folk Belief and the Renfrewshire Witch Hunt of 1697

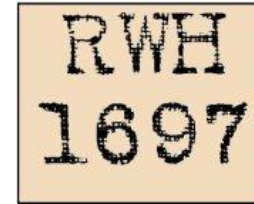

Programme

0900 – 0925	Arrival
0925	Welcome
0930	Professor Edward Cowan (Emeritus Professor of Scottish history, University of Glasgow) Folk Belief and the Witch-Hunt in Southwest Scotland
1010	Tea/ Coffee
1030	Dr Lizanne Henderson (University of Glasgow) The Eclipse of the Scottish Witch-Hunt
1110	Professor Hugh McLachlan (Professor of Applied Philosophy, Glasgow Caledonia University) Christian Shaw, children and the witchcraft scares in Renfrewshire and Salem in the 1690s
1150	Stephen Clancy (University of the West of Scotland) What happened to Christian Shaw?
1205	Questions
1225	Closing Remarks

"Injustice Done"

Scottish Witchcraft, Folk Belief and the Renfrewshire Witch Hunt of 1697

Saturday 9th June 2012, 9am -12.30pm
The Panel Room, Place of Paisley, Abbey Close, Paisley

Cost £5.00

Booking Form

Name

Address

Postcode

Email

Booking fee includes Tea/ coffee and biscuits mid-morning.

Cheques should be made payable to:

The Paisley Development Trust

And should be sent to :

RWH1697 Conference
The Paisley Development Trust
c/o YMCA
39 High Street
Paisley
PA1 2AH

All details will be held on a computer database for the sole purpose of registering for the Conference and will not be passed or sold to anyone.