

www.thegovanstones.org.uk

Family Fun Day

Visit the magnificent Govan Stones

Over a 1000 years ago Govan was the home of the Kings of Strathclyde, warrior kings who fought the Vikings plundering Scotland's coast.

Come and see the monuments that belonged to the kings and queens of ancient Govan.

Falconry

Craft
Activities & Face
Painting

Dress up as a Viking

Free tea, coffee
& juice

Bouncy
Castle
(Weather permitting)

Fun Quizzes
& Trails

Free Entry

Saturday 12th April 12.00-4.00 pm

Govan Old Church, 866 Govan Road (next to Pearce Institute)